

REGISTER OF LEGAL PRACTICE AREAS SIX ADVOCATEN

Our lawyers have registered the following principal and secondary legal practice areas in the register of the Netherlands Bar Association:

- Leon Burgersdijk: principal legal practice area: Real Estate Law (secondary legal practice areas: Construction Law, Neighbour Law, Easements and Ground Rents)
- Irma van den Berg: principal legal practice areas: Administrative Law (secondary legal practice areas: Procedural Administrative Law, Enforcement Law and Subsidy Law) and Environmental and Planning Law (secondary legal practice areas: Environmental Law, Nature Conservation Law and Planning and Zoning Law)
- Fabian Horsting: principal legal practice areas: Procurement Law and Property Law (secondary legal practice areas: Construction Law, Neighbour Law, Easements and Ground Rents)
- Hanneke Ellerman: principal legal practice areas: Administrative Law (secondary legal practice areas: Procedural Administrative Law and Enforcement Law) and Environmental and Planning Law (secondary legal practice areas: Environmental Law, Nature Conservation Law and Planning and Zoning Law)
- Daniel van Veen: principal legal practice area: Property Law (secondary legal practice area: Construction Law)
- Femke Borst: principal legal practice area: Landlord and Tenant Law (secondary legal practice areas: Commercial Space and Residential Space)
- Wouter Post: principal legal practice area: Real Estate Law (secondary legal practice area: Construction Law)
- Jeroen Kist: principal legal practice area: Landlord and Tenant Law
- Wing Yen Wong: principal legal practice area: Landlord and Tenant Law
- Benno den Teuling: principal legal practice area: Real Estate Law (secondary legal practice areas: Construction Law, Easements and Ground Rents).

On the basis of this registration they are required to obtain 10 credits per calendar year for each principal area of law in accordance with the standards set by the Netherlands Bar Association.